THAT CLAIM MONEY.

Some Thoughts Suggested By The Cry That Has Been Raised.

The claim of the Methodist Publishing House at Nashville against the government for damage to property during the war, when the federal authorities took charge of and used the publishing house and fixtures for their own purposes and conveniences has aroused a national interest. A great deal has been said about the manner of collecting the same. Up to this time practically one side of the case only has been heard.

A great scarecrow has been made of a telegram sent by Barbee & Smith to a Florida senator before the claim was allowed by congress, in answer to a message from the said senator enquiring if it were true, as reported, that Major Stahlman was to receive forty per cent of the claim for collecting the same. Barbee & Smith answered that it was not true. They were asked a categorical question and they answered it categorically. They told the truth.

Several attempts had before been made to collect this claim, but all had failed The agents of the publishing house had about given up all hope of ever getting it. Other similar claims had been paid to other churches but this one had repeatedly been turned down. At last Major Stahlman went to work on it and after three or four years of arduous labor succeeded in getting it through.

Call the methods adopted lobbying or what you please, it is the customary way of getting business transacted by congress. There is not a bill passed which appropriates money for individuals, corporations and rarely for any public improvement, that does not require the "lobbying" tactics (if you please) of shrewd and capable men.

What has the amount of Major Stahlman's commission to do with the justice of the claim? Has it not happened many times that lawyers have received as much as fifty per cent. for the collection of claims?

The following editorial from the Nashville American of June 15, is clear cut and to the point:

"In the matter of the Methodist claim the senate of the United States has developed a strange sensitiveness, the outward evidences of which smack rather of stage play.

"The Methodist church has a war claim of more or less virtue against the government. Efforts to collect it fail again and again and hope has been abandoned. Then comes Major Stahlman and expresses the opinion that he may be able to collect it. He is laughed at, doubtless, but he persists, and proposes, it seems, to work for the claim at his own expense, provided one-third of whatever he may recover be given him.

"The business representatives of the church looked upon the matter doubtingly and lightly at best, but Major Stahlman buckled down to the thing with all his peculiar method and everlasting energy. He labored three or four years and it is said spent $12,000 of his own money—against the bare possibility of getting the bill through congress, with the chances decidedly against them. If he had failed no one would have known of his endeavors or of his losses. But he succeeded, and the church has secured what it could have gotten by no other means.

"While the senate is fuming it occurs to the average citizen that it is the senate itself that is at fault. If the claim was a just one, what right has the senate to say whether the church shall pay its debts or buy bonds or pension its preachers with the money? If the claim was not just, why did the senate agree to it? The reports show that the senators were aware that Mr. Stahlman was working for the bill, and it is the veriest rot for any of them to say they believed he was doing so for nothing.

"The claim has been paid by congress as the result of usual methods. The agent who secured the passage of the bill has received his share according to agreement. The matter has been reported to the conference and accepted. Without going deeper into the matter, we are decidedly of the opinion that here the thing should rest."

I was seriously afflicted with a cough for several years, and last fall had a more severe cough than ever before. I have used many remedies without receiving much relief, and being recommended to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, by a friend, who, knowing me to be a poor widow, gave it to me, I tried it, and with the most gratifying results. The first bottle relieved me very much and the second bottle has absolutely cured me. I have not had as good health for 20 years. Respectfully, Mrs. Mary A. Beard, Claremore, Ark. Sold by C. E. Holton.

SHAFTER REACHES SANTIAGO

Troops Landed to Reinforce the Marines.

HOBSON PROBABLY STILL SAFE.

The Situation at Manila—New Engineer Corps—Ensigns Praised. Other War Items.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM

Mole St. Nicholas, June 20—General Shafter's fleet of transports has arrived off Santiago and Guantanamo and the landing of troops has probably already been accomplished. The hard pressed marines at Guantanamo Bay have been reinforced. It is not thought that any concerted move on Santiago will be made before the latter part of this week as much time may be taken up with landing and securing a base of operations.

THAT FLAG AT HALF MAST.

Jamaica, June 20—Much speculation has been created by the placing of the flag over Morro Castle at half mast for several hours after the bombardment by the Vesuvius on Thursday night. Its real significance is not known. Opinion is divided as to whether it means the death of Hobson and his crew or of a Spanish general. Admiral Sampson believes that it was in honor of the death of General Tyera who was killed in the bombardment.

MANILA HOLDS OUT.

Manila, June 17, via Hong Kong, June 20—The situation here is unchanged. The insurgents could not take Manila without field guns even if Admiral Dewey would permit it, which he will not do. The report that the United States transports from San Francisco had arrived here is incorrect. They are not expected before June 20th. All foreigners are leaving Manila on neutral ships.

PHILIPPINE ENGINEERS.

Chicago, June 20—Colonel Willard Young, of the Second Regiment of Illinois volunteers, started to San Francisco today to organize an engineer battalion for the Third Regiment of the Philippine contingent. The other two battallions of the regiment will be assembled at Fort Sheridan by Richard Henry Savage, the novelist and former army engineer, and by Major Pinckard, of Alabama.

COMMENDED BY SAMPSON.

Washington, June 20—Acting on the report of Lieutenant Harlow Admiral Sampson has officially commended Cadet Hard, of the battleship Massachusetts and Ensign Powell of the New York for distinguished bravery under fire.

ASTOR BATTERY AT 'FRISCO.

San Francisco, June 20—The Astor battery has arrived here. It is reported that several steamships have been impressed by the government for the third Manila expedition.

ENGINEERS IN CAMP.

New York, June 20—One hundred men of the First regiment of United States volunteer engineers went into camp at Peekskill today.

NO NEWS.

Port au Prince, June 20—No further news has been received here from Santiago or Guantanamo bay.

YALE SAILS.

Newport News, Va., June 20—The auxiliary cruiser Yale having secured a new crew sails today with a cargo of ammunition and clothing for Admiral Sampson's fleet.

PASSAIC IN PORT.

Key West, June 20—The Passaic arrived this morning enroute to New Orleans.

BATTERY TO TAMPA.

New York, June 20—Battery B, fifth United States heavy artillery, left Fort Slocum for Tampa under special orders from Washington today.

Telegraphic Briefs.

The smokeless powder finishing house near Cincinnati was blown up last night. A stranger who is supposed to be a Spanish spy and who applied the fuse was the only one hurt.

Today's yellow fever situation is favorable. No new cases.

It is officially reported that the Harvard and Yale will take General Garretson's command from Camp Alger to reinforce Shafter.

ARE WELL TREATED.

A Volunteer's Side of Camp Life at Raleigh.

The following letter was received by a party here from one of our soldier boys recently recruited for Company D, Second Regiment. It gives his side of camp life and also tells how the boys fare, which is somewhat in contrast with reports which occasionally reach us as to the poor fare received by the voluuteers:

Raleigh, N. C., June 15, 1898.

Dear Friend—I was somewhat surprised when we reached camp to find so cordial reception awaiting us. I had supposed from reports that camp life was extremely tiresome and that the men were badly treated. I find just the opposite the case. I find that a man can enjoy himself fully as well and have just as nice a time in camp as he can in Greensboro, provided he is willing to use the means at his disposal. I was expecting to find a crowd of rowdies but I found instead a set of jolly, fun-loving boys and just the opposite of rowdyism. I have seen crowds on many city streets far worse than would for a moment be tolerated here. They all realize that to be well treated they must conform to the rules and regulations, and this done, they have almost as much liberty as they did at home. Our company (Company D.) is a model in this respect, and I do not wish to be associated with any more gentlemenly men, for their conduct is beyond reproach.

The fare, while not exactly such as one would expect to receive at the Benbow or the McAdoo, is fully up to what could be expected from a boarding housekeeper who has so many men to feed for nothing and pay them to stay besides. Our fare is such as is calculated to sustain men when in action, not the diet of dudes.

We are expected to fight when the time comes and endure long and fatiguing marches, and our food is supplied with this end in view. At any rate I have paid good money for worse board than I now receive and it is well cooked and wholesome.

The routine duty of drilling, guard mounting, etc., is a little tiresome till one gets used to it and then it fits you as easily as an old shoe.

The girls come out to camp every day and this breaks the monotomy. They treat us very cordially and seem to think it a duty as well as a pleasure to do all they can to make the boys in blue enjoy themselves. We appreciate it and only regret they can not come oftener and stay longer.

Our regiment expects to be moved south in a few days, and as soon as we get settled in camp I will give you a few impressions of my trip. Then when Cuba or some other seaport town is reached I will act as war correspondent and keep you posted. Regards to all my friends.

SPANIARDS REFUSE DIRECT.

Propose to Hold Hobson Until Havana Falls.

THE THIRD CALL POSTPONED.

Erben Warned—Paying Off Troops. Fifty Thousand Troops in Havana—For Porto Rico.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Key West, June 20—A despatch has been received here to the effect that General Blanco has positively refused to exchange Hobson and the crew of the Merrimac declaring that the Americans must capture Havana before he will release them.

OFFICIALLY CONFIRMED.

Washington, June 20—The following despatch has been received at the war department from Key West:

"General Blanco states that the Spanish government refuses to exchange Lieutenant Hobson and others of the crew of the Merrimac.

(Signed,) "Watson."

CALL POSTPONED.

Washington, June 20—The third call for volunteers will not be made immediately. Gen. Corbin says that the call is not in immediate prospect but admits that it is a possibility that a new proclamation may be issued under certain circumstances that may develop within a few days.

WORK OF A SPY.

New York, June 20—Admiral Erben received letters this morning stating that a Spanish spy was preparing to destroy the defensive mines down the bay.

PAYING OFF.

Chattanooga, June 20—Paymaster-General Healey arrived at Camp Thomas this morning and will proceed at once to pay off the New York troops. Large quantities of supplies have arrived.

HAVANA NEWS.

Key West, June 20—A Cuban officer belonging to the staff of General Rodriguez has arrived here from Havana. He states that there are 50,000 Spanish soldiers in that city and that it is strongly fortified. The people are suffering greatly for want of food. The greater part of the troops are kept stationed in the coast forts to guard against the Americans.

PORTO RICAN EXPEDITION.

Washington, June 20—The officials of the war department are of the opinion that the Porto Rican expedition will be ready to start by July first. Active preparations are being made with all speed under the direct supervision of General Miles. Orders have been issued to the chiefs of the bureaus to rush the gathering of supplies day and night. Fernandina will be the starting point of the expedition. Fifteen regiments now at Camp Thomas have received orders to prepare to move to Fernandina.

Surf bathing, boat riding. There is no place like Ocean View, only a few moments ride from Norfolk. Round trip to Norfolk $3.50.

Firemen's Convention.

Goldsboro, June 18—The Goldsboro people are already beginning to make preparations for the entertainment of the firemen, who hold their annual convention and tournament here on the 26th and 27th, and 28th of August, The attendance will be very large, the roads having made a special rate, and the live Goldsboro business men will make the event the biggest success of all previous meeting of this association.—News-Observer.

Ribot Falls.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Paris, June 18—Ribot has notified President Faure that he is unable to form a new cabinet.

Bad management keeps more people in poor circumstances than any other one cause. To be successful one must look ahead and plan ahead so that when a favorable opportunity presents itself he is ready to take advantage of it. A little forethought will also save much expense and valuable time. A prudent and careful man will keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house, the shiftless fellow will wait until necessity compels it and then ruin his best horse going for a doctor and have a big doctor bill to pay, besides; one pays out 25 cents, the other is out a hundred dollars and then wonders why his neighbor is getting richer while he is getting poorer. For sale by C. E. Holton.

COLORED EXCURSIONS.

Miss Johnsing and Mr. Jackson See The World Today.

The colored citizen is all agog today. Excursions from the four quarters of the compass loaded to the guards passed and "spoke each other in passing" here. At 9:20 came the first train bound from Reidsville to Winston with 400 passengers aboard and there was much shouting and pouring out at car doors. At 10:40 another train from Winston bound for Charlotte came in with 500 passengers and the performance was repeated. About twenty beaux in chocolate and dusky Dulcienas of the Winston contingent kow-kowed with acquaintances too long and the train pulled off without them. They gave chase at full speed but failed to overhaul the "kyars." At 1:15, 500 Wilmington colored folks came in over the C. F. & Y. V. to spend the day here. The crowd was remarkably orderly and well behaved. Captain Donnell reported that there was not the slightest disturbance coming up. They have also been well conducted on the streets.

Not Yet Accepted.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Charlotte Observer wrote that Messrs. Burgin and Reitzel of this place had been accepted and assigned to the signal corps of General Merritt's Philippine expedition. This is a mistake. The young men went to Raleigh this morning where they will be examined for enlistment. Their acceptance is still contingent.

No "Just-as-Good" Argument,

There is no "just-as-good" argument ever advertised by this store. It sounds bad, to commence with, for we have everything that a first-class drug store should have, and have no need to say "just as good." And in the next place, we do not believe there is anything that can really take the place of the thing you want.

What you want you shall have, and if by some mischance we should not have it, you will be told frankly and no substitute palmed off on you.

When our gunboats can't find anything else to shoot at they just "shell the woods." But then the Spaniards seem to have sought that proverbial refuge.

The wife of Senator Hanna's son has received a divorce from her husband. It is pleasant to relate that no claim for alimony has been presented to the United States government.

Amer'can war songs have broken out in St. Thomas, Danish West Indies, and the police have been ordered to suppress them. A cop chasing a war song is surely something new.

With the arrival of Shafter's expedition, for which Garcia was said to be waiting with 15,000 troops, interesting developments may be expected. The effective fighting force of the Americans and insurgents combined will be the rise of 30,000 men. The exact number of Spanish troops at Santiago and vicinity can not be learned but is probably now something like 25,000. This will give enough men on either side to test the fighting qualities and generalship of Spaniards and Americans. There will be some outright fighting since the guerilla tactics of the Spaniards will no longer be possible. The fighting ability of the two navies has been, comparatively, settled already and when the first decisive battle has been fought at Santiago military experts and even civilians will be able to "get a line" on the land fighters of both nations.

When John R. Smith hands in his resignation, by proxy or otherwise, it will be a tolerably cool day in the state agricultural department.

That there are some Spaniards beside Senor Moret who see the situation in the peninsula in a dry light, and foresee the result of the continuance of a hopeless, if courageous, struggle appears in the numerously signed Barcelona manifesto. After declaring that the present government is one of "neglect and disorder" the manifesto continues:

"Spain asks immediate peace, despite the opposition of those who desire the utter destruction of the country in order to impose their domination upon its ruin. The sooner peace is concluded the more advantageous it will be. It is the duty of everybody to force the government to obtain peace."

That is an eminently sensible view of the situation but not one that is likely to prevail. The struggle will be prolonged and when the inevitable end has come Spain will sink to the level of Denmark, Greece, and Portugal—and there remain.

Mr. David T. Duncan, of New York City, kindly informs a restive public that "from the New York view point there is not the slightest indication that the democratic party will ever again be in power." That is cute of Mr. Duncan, but a little reviewing of democratic history will show that the New York "view point" is become of vastly less importance to the rest of the country than used to be the case. New York City has no political convictions, just as it has no moral convictions and no commercial integrity. A community that sneezes, politically, when the saloon bum takes snuff need not feel surprised if the rest of the country, tolerably large outside of New York, does not gape in dumb adoration when its "view point" is made known. People no longer take New York seriously, in politics or otherwise. It is recognized to be merely an overgrown, unwieldy aggregation of heterogeneous elements, utterly unable to govern itself decently, and even lacking the desire to do so. The democratic party may very well congratulate itself upon having its ill-will and need not fear its prophecies of misfortune.

In the recent Cuyahoga convention republicans showed that populists are not the only Buckeye patriots who understand the noble art of headbreaking and "behaving like a delegate" generally.

German war experts have been wont to wax beerily humorous at the expense of American things military. Yet her Royal Highness the Duchess of Hesse is a colonel in a crack German regiment.

The notable fact in the case of the new American provincial of the order of the Holy Cross, Rev. Dr. John A. Zahm, is that he is a "Darwinian." He avowed his belief in evolution years ago. The heresy-hunters pricked up their ears, but Pope Leo made him a doctor of divinity.

If We Only Knew!

If all nursing mothers could only know the true worth of Mrs. Joe Persons Remedy, a world of suffering and trouble would be saved. It is the greatest medicine I ever tried in my life. I have a large family of children, and I do believe I am indebted to Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy for having raised them all. When anything is the matter with my children I give them the Remedy, and there is never any need to give them soothing syrups, paregoric and things of that kind. The Remedy keeps them well and healthy, especially when teething, and they never need anything else. One of my babies had sore eyes, so that the eyes had to be kept shaded all the time, and the Remedy cured her. I cannot say too much for it. If everybody knew what it would do, and try it, a world of suffering would be saved.

NOW IN SESSION HERE.

Third Annual Convention of The Thurman W. C. T. U.

Communicated.

The third annual convention of the Thurman Woman's Christian Temperance Union of North Carolina was called to order by the president, Miss M. A Lynch, of Salisbury, Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. There were present Mrs. Lucy Thurman, of Michigan, national and world's superintendent of work among colored people, also a large number of delegates from different parts of the state. The departments of Literature and Press Work and Sabbath Observance were thoroughly discussed by the superintendent and delegates. After attending to much miscellaneous business the convention adjourned to meet at 8 o'clock p. m.

The evening session opened with singing and the reading of the crusade Psalm. Dr. A. Shepard, of Charlotte, and Dr. D. J. Sanders, of Biddle University, were called to the platform and asked to speak. Both of the gentlemen emphasized their interest in the temperance work and willingness to help. Dr. Sanders said Biddle University was for temperance in all forms, students were not only forbidden the use of strong drink but also the use of tobacco. Mrs Lucy Thurman responded to the two gentlemen, and dwelt upon the Princeton Inn case.

The regular program of the evening was then taken np. The address of welcome on behalf of the Greensboro W. C. T. U., was delivered by Mrs. Amanda Johnson. Address of welcome on behalf of the clergy was delivered by Rev. A. J. Tate. Address of welcome on behalf of the citizens of Greensboro was delivered by Dr. J. L. Bullock, response to address of welcome was delivered by Mrs. M. E. Shaw, of Oxford.

Next on program was the president's annual address, which was strong and forcible for the temperance work and its needs. A beautiful Gavel from Prof. H. A. Hunt, Supt. of the Industrial Department of Biddle University was then presented by Dr. D. J. Sanders. On Sunday morning at eleven o'clock the convention went in a body to the A. & M. college to hear the annual sermon of the State Teacher's Association. At 4 o'clock the W. C. T. U. convention and Teachers Association held a joint mass-meeting at the A. & M. college. At 8 o'clock Dr. A. Shepard preached the annual sermon for the W. C. T. U., which boldly advocated the principle of temperance and a true christian womanhood.

The Horrors of Nervousness.

Those who are going through the indescribable terrors of this dreadful disease, require no description of the agonies they constantly suffer. But why suffer? Good blood gives good nerves; and gives good blood. It is a nerve strengthener and restorer, the efficacy of which cannot be over-estimated; when it is learned that its absolute freedom from poisonous drugs or opiates, makes it safe for use in the hands of sick or inexperienced persons, there is an increased appreciation of it. JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA is a specific for impoverished or impotent nerves; it feeds the nervous system to high health, provides for physical and brain endurance, cheerfulness, happiness and energy.

Johnston's Sarsaparilla

Our thirty-six page illustrated book contains some interesting pages on Nerve Exhaustion. It is free for the asking. Quart bottle, $1.00.

A CARD.

I understand that a report is being circulated in the city to the effect that I have retired from the insurance business and I desire to announce to my friends and the public generally, that this report is UNTRUE.

I am still actively engaged in the FIRE INSURANCE BUSINESS
And have recently associated with myself in the business Mr. S. H. Boyd. We can be found in our office, Room No. 6, KATZ BUILDING, at all times during business hours and will be glad to continue to serve our friends and the public.

We represent companies, whose SURPLUS aggregates more than $35,000,000, and we will meet all giving to all business intrusted to us, prompt and careful attention.

Thanking my friends for their liberal patronage in the past and asking a continuance of the same, I am Yours truly,

R. G. GLENN.

Talking of Values

and

Receiving Them

Is Two Different Things

We leave out the words and present to you the genuine article—

VALUE.

It takes (in the case we have in view) material, workmanship, fit and finish, to constitute value in a ready made garment. We present to you today the garment which contains all the above, and a guarantee goes with each one.

They Will—They MUST Give Satisfaction.

Beyond question, we believe them to be the best Unlaundered Shirts on the market.

Our patrons say that the Druid Hill is the best for the money. 65c. 2 for $1.35.

Matthews, Chisholm & Stroud

Clothiers and Haberdashers,

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Don't forget the lawn party tomorrow night. Everybody invited.

The new ad of D. Bendheim & Son's appears in their regular space today.

Miss Bessie Boyd, of Reidsville, is visiting her brother Col. S. H. Boyd on Lee street.

Fifteen refrigerator cars loaded with fruit passed through today over the Southern going south.

There are some new announcements in the penny column today by the Piedmont Realty and Guaranty today.

W. J. Ellis, ex-editor of the Winston Union Republican, passed through the city today returning from a trip south.

Don't forget the lawn party to be given by the Ladies' Aid Society of Centenary church next Tuesday night, June 21st, in R. M. Phillips' yard on South Elm street.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. Foster Ross, a former resident of Greensboro, had his leg broken Saturday at Mt. Airy. A bale of cotton fell on his leg breaking both bones.

Miss Annie Gudger, of Waynesville, late of the Normal College here, is stopping for a few days with Mrs. Weaver, on West Market street. Miss Gudger goes to the University summer school for sometime.

We call your attention to the ad on this page of Georgia watermelons for sale by some of our leading merchants. They are large, fine and delicious. A large, nice one was sent to this office as a sample, and it is simply "out o' sight."

The young Ladies Aid Society of the West Washington street Baptist church will give a lawn party Thursday evening June 23rd at Mrs. Cooper's opposite the church, for the benefit of the Sunday school room.

A man who wears a soldiers suit must belong to the army but not so with boys. Matthews, Chisholm & Stroud have a little boy mascot in their show window dressed in full soldiers uniform and a very pretty suit it is.

The family of Dr. B. W. Best, have arrived and occupy the cottage 314 Asheboro street. Dr. Best has been here sometime, and we extend to him and his family a cordial welcome. As a physician, Dr. Best comes highly recommended as a man learned in the profession and an attentive physician.

We are pleased to call your attention to the advertisement of Prof. C. J. Brockmann. He is handling the best makes of pianos. Prof. Brockmann is a thorough musician, knows a good instrument, takes pride in his profession, and is eminently qualified for the business of selecting and furnishing first-class instruments to those who want them. We refer you to his advertisement.

THEY PLAYED BALL

And Slept All Night in a Barn On The Way Home.

The Greensboro Junior baseball team went over to Reidsville and played a game of ball with the boys there on Saturday. It was a warm game all the way through, in fact the ball appears to have been too hot to handle. The score was something less than the vote for Governor in '76 when Vance was elected over Settle. The official returns give the game to Greensboro by eight majority.

On the way home Saturday night the boys, who were in a hack, after walking and pushing up slick and muddy hills until well nigh exhausted hove to and spent the remainder of the night in a barn, buying from a farmer sixteen cents worth of corn for the tired horses. The victors, covered with glory and mud, arrived in the city about noon yesterday. The Juniors are good pluck and after being placed in the dry dock a few days for slight repairs, will be ready to play ball in earnest.

Called Meeting.

There will be a called meeting of Steam Fire Engine Co. No. 1, this evening at 8 o clock. Every member is requested to be present.

J. T. Abbott, Pres.

All But the Shouting.

Editor Telegram: We will have taken Santiago, Porto Rico, ended the war and just gotten the news by the coming 4th of July. The country will be jubilant. Let's have a grand rally at the Battle Ground on that day. Great as are the deserts of Lieutenant Hobson and his friends I had just as leave risk Spanish shells for one morning as to sleep on the ground at Martinsville and elsewhere for seven years—no blankets and "hit a raining." That's just what the heroes of Guilford Court House did. The war spirit is abroad in the land and I predict an enormous crowd. J. M. M.

Greensboro, June 20.

There is more to be seen at Norfolk than any other seaport town. You can spend a week and then not see all the sights. We give you four days. Round trip for $3.50.

Lawn Party.

The Ladies Aid Society of Centenary church will give a lawn party in Mrs. R. M. Phillips yard on South Elm street next Tuesday night, June 21st, for the purpose of raising some funds for the church. All are cordially invited.

Go and see Norfolk in the time of war and see how a seaport town fortifies herself. Round trip $3.50.

The Idlers Sketch Club.

Notwithstanding the threatening aspect of the elements the Idlers Sketch Club played to a larger audience Saturday night than at any previous time during their stay here. As usual the sketches were clean, catchy and entertaining, and met with repeated applause from the audience.

The club has made arrangements to return in a short while and spend a week here.

The Event of the Season.

The Hook & Ladder company are negotiating for an excursion to Norfolk, Baltimore and Washington, on or about the middle of July. The boys want to raise some cash to defray their expenses to the tournament at Goldsboro and believe an excursion to Norfolk the best way to do so.
